

Brittany Vild, CPA

Vice President Litigation Services & Family Law
Lowers Forensics International

Professional Summary

Brittany Vild, CPA, specializes in litigation support and has experience in family law, public accounting, corporate accounting, and forensic accounting/litigation consulting. She also leads the San Diego team, ensuring excellence in customer engagement and service delivery.

Ms. Vild has testified as an expert forensic accounting witness in the San Diego Superior Court and has performed a wide range of litigation accounting services including determining income available for support, lifestyle analyses, and real property allocations.

Having commenced her accounting career in the audit department at PwC, Ms. Vild audited multiple industries including biotechnology, telecommunication, retail, and scientific research. She subsequently began to focus in the field of family law at Gurseyn Schneider, LLP, with a focus on high net worth marital estates.

Prior to joining Lowers Forensics International, she was part of the team that started the in-house forensic accounting department at Antonyan Miranda, LLP, one of the largest family law firms in Southern California.
